

Video Book Reports

Film a Video Book Talk

Film yourself reporting on a book you just read. Include a summary of the story, a reaction, an analysis of the writer's style, information about the author (such as other books published), and additional information about the book (such as book series or movie info). Then make a recommendation to other readers about whether or not they should check it out.

For some idea of what this might look like, check out this brief Reading Rainbow book talk video.

You will need to send the video to your teacher either by making a CD copy or bringing a USB Flash drive.
